Give both a regular expression and a finite automaton for the following language. The alphabet is \{a, b, c\}. The language is all strings that satisfy at least one of the following properties:
(i) the string starts and end with an a,
(ii) the string starts with a b and has even length, or
(iii) there is exactly one c in the string.