A graph is 3-regular if every vertex has 3 neighbors.

1. Draw a 3-regular graph that is bipartite.

2. Draw a 3-regular graph that is not bipartite.

3. Prove that in a 3-regular graph that is bipartite, the two partite sets have the same size.